

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM: YOUCAT Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church God Approaches Us Men

MASS INTENTIONS

13. Can the Church err in questions of faith?

The faithful as a whole cannot err in faith, because Jesus promised his disciples that he would send them the Spirit of truth and keep them in the truth (Jn 14:17). [80-82, 85-87, 92, 100]

Just as the disciples believed Jesus with their whole heart, a Christian can rely completely on the Church when he asks about the way to life. Since Jesus Christ himself gave his apostles the commission to teach, the Church has a teaching authority (the – MAGISTERIUM) and must not remain silent. Although individual members of the Church can err and even make serious mistakes, the Church as a whole can never fall away from God’s truth. The Church carries through the ages a living truth that is greater than herself. We speak about a depositum fidei, a deposit of faith that is to be preserved. If such a truth is publicly disputed or distorted, the Church is called upon to clarify again “what has always and everywhere been believed by all” (St. Vincent of Lerins, d. 450).

14. Is Sacred Scripture true?

“The books of Scripture firmly, faithfully and without error teach [the] truth. ...Written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, they have God as their author” (Second Vatican Council, DV 11). [103-107]

The—BIBLE did not fall from heaven in its final form, nor did God dictate it to human scribes who copied it down mechanically. Rather “God chose certain men who ... made full use of their own faculties and powers so that, though he acted in them and by them, it was as true authors that they consigned to writing whatever he wanted written, and no more” (Second Vatican Council, DV 11). One factor in recognizing particular texts as Sacred Scripture was their general acceptance in the Church. In the Christian communities there had to be a consensus: ‘Yes, through this text God himself speaks to us—this is inspired by the Holy Spirit!’

Which of the many original Christian writings are really inspired by the Holy Spirit has been defined since the fourth century in the so-called—CANON of Sacred Scriptures.
