

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM: YOU CAT Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church

The Seven Sacraments of the Church

193. Is there some inner logic that unites the sacraments with each other?

All SACRAMENTS are an encounter with Christ, who is himself the original sacrament. There are sacraments of INITIATION, which introduce the recipient into the faith: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are sacraments of healing: Reconciliation and the Anointing of the Sick. And there are sacraments of communion and mission: Matrimony and Holy Orders. [1210 - 1211]

Baptism joins us with Christ. Confirmation gives us his Spirit. The Eucharist unites us with him. Confession reconciles us with Christ. Through the Anointing of the Sick, Christ heals, strengthens, and consoles. In the sacrament of Matrimony, Christ promises his love in our love and his fidelity in our fidelity. Through the sacrament of the Holy Orders, PRIESTS have the privilege of forgiving sins and celebrating the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

The Sacrament of Baptism

194. What is Baptism?

Baptism is the way out of the kingdom of death into life, the gateway to the CHURCH, and the beginning of a lasting communion with God. [1213-1216, 1276-1278]

Baptism is the foundational SACRAMENT and the prerequisite for all other sacraments. It unites us with Jesus Christ, incorporates us into his redemptive death on the Cross, thereby freeing us from the power of Original Sin and all personal sins, and causes us to rise with him to a life without end. Since Baptism is a covenant with God, the individual must say Yes to it. In the baptism of children, the parents confess the Faith on behalf of the children. 197

Today is World Mission Sunday. It is the time when we reflect on 'mission' - what it means to be a missionary and how we can best support missionaries with our prayer and financial resources.

It highlights our responsibility to spread God's message of love and compassion and be a witness to the Gospel Work with our less fortunate brethren and provide spiritual, material and financial support and thus build the kingdom of God.

Please continue the good work..

OCTOBER 20, 2013 WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today is World Mission Sunday. We along with Catholics throughout the world, are called to offer our prayers and generous financial support through the Propagation of the faith, for the worldwide mission of Jesus. Your gift on World Mission Sunday helps

- People in remote villages, towns and cities through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests.
- Children, elderly, refugees, the sick, and orphans through the service of Religious sisters and brothers.
- To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family
- Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer prayer for the work of the Church today in the Missions of Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands and the remote regions of Latin America.

A second collection will be taken after Holy Communion.

Please be as generous as you can today, World Mission Sunday

OCTOBER IS DEDICATED TO OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

How to pray the Rosary: The ideal is to have the whole family recite at least five decades of the Rosary daily. We need to say the Rosary slowly enough to make its recitation devout and reverent. We are to reflect for a minute on the mystery and then concentrate on the meaning of the prayers as we say them to avoid distractions. Besides saying the Rosary with others in the family before bedtime, let us make a habit of reciting the Rosary during our journey to the workplace and during our exercises. If we do so, we shall experience for ourselves the truth of these words: "Meditating on the mysteries of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, may we imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise." Amen. Fr. Tony, Supplement to XXVIII Sunday "Scriptural Homilies") L/13

A favorite prayer of eminent Catholics: Blessed Mother Teresa was always seen reciting the Rosary. Daniel O'Connor, the "Father of the Nation" of Ireland recited the Rosary in his private room before each session of the parliament, and it is no wonder that Ireland is called "The Land of the Rosary." The famous proponent of the Rosary, Fr. Peyton, challenges us: "Set apart ten minutes for Rosary at home, you will make your home a heaven of peace." The great scientist, William Ampere, in his old age inspired and converted Frederick Osanam (the founder of the St. Vincent the Paul Society), by his daily recital of the Rosary at a grotto. The last words of Louis Pasteur to his nurse before his death far away from his home were: "Tell my wife that I died reciting the Rosary."
