The Seven Sacraments of the Church
The Sacrament of Marriage

267. What should be done if a Catholic wants to marry a non-Catholic Christian?

Church approval must be obtained for the wedding. This is because a so-called “mixed” (that is, interdenominational) marriage requires from both partners a special fidelity to Christ, so that the scandal of Christian division, which has still not been remedied, does not continue in miniature and perhaps even lead to giving up the practice of the faith. [1633-1637]

268. Can a Catholic Christian marry a person from another religion?

For catholic believers, to enter into and live in marriage with a person who belongs to another Religion can cause difficulties for their own faith and for their future children. Given her responsibility for the faithful, the Church has therefore established the impediment of disparity of religion. Such a marriage can therefore be contracted validly only if a dispensation from this impediment is obtained before the wedding. The marriage is not sacramental. [1633 - 1637]

269. May a husband and wife who are always fighting get a divorce?

The Church has a great respect for the ability of a person to keep a promise and to bind himself in lifelong fidelity. She takes people at their word. Every marriage can be endangered by crises. Talking things over together, prayer (together), and often therapeutic counseling as well can open up ways out of the crisis. Above all, remembering that in a sacramental marriage there is always a third party to the bond - Christ - can kindle hope again and again. Someone for whom marriage has become unbearable, however, or who may even be exposed to spiritual or physical violence, may divorce. This is called a “separation from bed and board”, about which the Church must be notified. In these cases, even though the common life is broken off, the marriage remains valid. [1629, 1649]

Indeed, there are also cases in which the crisis in a marriage ultimately goes back to the fact that one spouse or both was not eligible at the time of the wedding or did not fully consent to the marriage. Then the marriage is invalid in the canonical (legal) sense. In such cases an annulment procedure can be introduced at the diocesan tribunal. 424

Father's Day Prayer

God, our Father bless these men, that they may find strength as fathers .
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
may honour them always with a spirit of profound respect.
Amen

Feast of Corpus Christi

This year marks the 750th anniversary of the feast of Corpus Christi, known today as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. A time to ponder and to celebrate the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, the feast day was introduced by Pope Urban IV in 1264 and is now celebrated on the second Sunday after Pentecost.

Next Sunday, June 22, 2014 is the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. After the 12 noon Mass, there will be a Procession with the Blessed Sacrament in the parking lot and around the Church. The Procession will be followed by the Benediction. You are all invited to take part in this devotion.

"To love God with all your heart and your neighbour as yourself, is a greater thing than all the temple sacrifices" - (Mk 12)

In order to truly appreciate and value the people around us, we must let go our sense of self-importance, deny ourselves and help others more.

Thank You

The Knights of Columbus St. Aidan Council would like to thank all members and parishioners who participated at the Prayer Service when the Immaculate Conception Icon was in St. Aidan Church. Your support was very much appreciated.

Pre-Authorized Giving (PAG)

We would like to remind everyone that you may sign up for pre-authorized giving at any time of the year. PAG allows parishioners to make their regular Sunday offering, and if they wish their ShareLife offering using the "Direct Debit" system. PAG is an option, not a requirement. It is being widely used in Toronto Archdiocese and we want to make PAG available to all parishioners who would like to take advantage of it. This is a very convenient way to support your parish even in your absence. Forms can be picked up at the gift shop and brought to the parish office. Please be assured all information is strictly confidential.
