The Dignity of the Human Person

291. How can a person tell whether his action is good or bad?
A person is capable of distinguishing good actions from bad ones because he possesses reason and a conscience, which enable him to make clear judgments. [1749-1754, 1757-1758]

The following guidelines make it easier to distinguish good actions from bad ones:

1. What I do must be good; a good intention alone is enough.
Bank robbery is always bad, even if I commit that crime with the good intention of giving the money to poor people.
2. Even when what I do is truly good, if I perform the good action with a bad intention, it makes the whole action bad. If I walk an elderly woman home and help her around the house, that is good. But if I do it while planning a later break-in, that makes the whole action something bad.
3. The circumstances in which someone acts can diminish his responsibility, but they cannot change at all the good or bad character of an action. Hitting one's mother is always bad, even if the mother has previously shown little love to the child. 295 - 297

292. May we do something bad so that good can result from it?
No, we may never deliberately do something evil or tolerate an evil so that good can result from it. Sometimes there is no other course of action but to tolerate a lesser evil in order to prevent a greater evil. [1755-1756, 1759-1761]

The end does not justify the means. It cannot be right to commit infidelity so as to stabilize one's marriage. It is just as wrong to use embryos for stem cell research, even if one could thereby make medical breakthroughs. It is wrong to try to "help" a rape victim by aborting her child.

In today's readings, the two commandments - love God and love your neighbour sum up the Scripture. We show we love God by loving our neighbour. Our neighbour is everyone, especially the weak, the needy, the under privileged.

Your generous contribution to the POOR BOX every Sunday, manifest your relationship with God by your love for your neighbour. Please continue the good work and may God bless you for your kind generosity.

CONGRATULATIONS

On October 18, 2014, we have five of our Altar Servers who received a God Medal from the Most Rev. Vincent Nguyen, Auxiliary Bishop, for their service to our parish community for many years. We look forward to seeing them as our future leaders and considering a vocation to the priesthood.

COINS FOR LIFE 2014 CAMPAIGN LIFE COALITION

Would you or your family put aside your twoonies, loonies, quarters, nickels, dimes during the next 8 - 10 weeks, and contribute these savings to help in the struggle to end abortion and to create a culture of life? Containers will be handed out at the back of the Church after all Masses next weekend. You are asked to return containers and contents on the weekend of December 13/14, 2014. Remember that every penny helps. Make it a family project. Remember that your small change can lead to a BIG change in our land!!

MEMORIAL BOOK

Parishioners are invited to write the names of their deceased relatives and friends. Prayers will be offered for them at the Sunday Masses during the whole month of November.

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED INCLUDING THE CHURCH IN YOUR WILL?

Three common types of bequests are:

1. Residuary Bequest - Once your loved ones have been looked after, you may wish to leave the rest of the estate to your parish or favourite archdiocesan charity.
2. General Bequest - Should you wish to leave the Church a specific dollar amount, a certain asset or a set percentage of your estate.
3. Contingency Bequest - Helps you leave a portion of your estate to the Church if a named beneficiary does not survive you.

LIVING WITH CHRIST DAILY MISSAL

is the perfect companion: whether or not you attend Mass daily, it gives you daily Bible readings and everything you need to support your prayer life.

If you wish to subscribe, you may take a subscription form at the back of the Church and with your subscription, you will be able to help St. Aidan Church.
