

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM: YOUCAT Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church

The Dignity of the Human Person

298. Is someone who in good conscience acts wrongly guilty in God's sight?

No. If a person has thoroughly examined himself and arrived at a certain judgment, he must in any case follow his inner voice, even at the risk of doing something wrong. [1790-1794, 1801-1802]

God does not blame us for the objective harm that results from a wrong judgment of conscience, provided that we ourselves are not responsible for having a badly formed conscience. While it is quite true that ultimately one must follow one's conscience, it must likewise be kept in mind that people have swindled, murdered, tortured, and betrayed others on the basis of what they wrongly suppose to be their conscience.

299. What is meant by a "virtue"?

A virtue is an interior disposition, a positive habit, a passion that has been placed at the service of the good. [1803, 1833]

"You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48). That means that we must change on our way to God. By our human abilities we can do that only in fits and starts. With his grace God supports the human virtues and give us, above and beyond that, the so called supernatural virtues (305), which help us to come closer to God and live more securely in his light. 293-294

"VOCATION SEEDS"

What will you say when you meet God face to face? Better still, what will God say to you? Will you be able to answer that you served faithfully? Can you answer that now? If God is calling you,
