

PENTECOST SUNDAY

FROM: YOUCAT

Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church The Ten Commandments

“You Shall Love Your Neighbour as Yourself”

The Fourth Commandment: Honour your father and your mother.

367. To whom does the Fourth Commandment refer, and what does it require of us?

The Fourth Commandment refers in the first place to one’s physical parents, but also to the people to whom we owe our life, our well-being, our security, and our faith. [2196-2200, 2247-2248]

What we owe in the first place to our parents - namely love, gratitude, and respect - should also govern our relations to people who guide us and are there for us. There are many people who represent for us a God-given, natural, and good authority: foster or step-parents, older relatives and ancestors, educators, teachers, employers, superiors. In the spirit of the Fourth Commandments we should do them justice. In the broadest sense, this commandment applies even to our duties as citizens to the State. 325

368. What place does the family have in God’s plan of creation?

A man and a woman who are married to each other form, together with their children, a family. God wills that the love of the spouses, if possible, should produce children. These children, who are entrusted to the protection and care of their parents, have the same dignity as their parents. [2201-2206, 2249]

God himself, in the depths of the Trinity, is communion. In the human sphere, the family is the primordial image of communion. The family is the unique school of living in relationships. Nowhere do children grow up as well as in an intact family, in which they experience heartfelt affection, mutual respect, and responsibility for one another. Finally, faith grows in the family, too; the family is, the Church tells us, a miniature church, a “domestic church”, the radiance of which should invite others into this fellowship of faith, charity, and hope. 271

‘VOCATION SEEDS’

The confused and fear-filled apostles were totally changed by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as they become powerful and dynamic proclaimers of their faith in Jesus Christ. In today’s Church God calls priests, religious and deacons to serve Him and to serve others especially by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. If you feel God may be calling you to this ministry,

SHARELIFE

Working wonders for those who need help in our neighbourhood.....

“What an ambassador for Mary Centre he was, and Gord was really tickled to be chosen for this role as co-speaker.” said Dominic Conforti, retiring Director at Mary centre. Gord, who is intellectually challenged, shared his story at the 2014 ShareLife Golf tournament about how he and his two brothers came to be part of Mary Centre. He spoke about Christina who helps them during the day involving them in activities in the community and teaching them to do things for themselves. Then there was James who is with them on the weekend and helped them grow a veggie garden every spring and summer and the pride they feel when they pick their vegetables. Last year, over 2,300 people with special needs received the compassion and care they needed to enjoy their life and be productive in their homes and communities.

Our Parish Goal: $ 43,000.00

Our Donations to Date: $

Thank You for Your Generosity.

Together we can work wonders!

Jesus' ministry on earth is now complete and He goes to join His Father. As promised, He gives us a special gift - the gift of the Holy Spirit.

We are called to live our faith in Jesus and with humility, kindness and love and reach out to those who need our help - our neighbour-in-need. Thank you for your generous contribution to the POOR BOX.

A friendly reminder, the casseroles to the Good Shepherd Centre will be picked up on the First Friday of the month. We look forward to your support.

Today is the Feast of Pentecost, the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles.

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
O Holy Spirit, Divine Spirit of light and love, I consecrate to Thee my understanding, my heart and my will, my whole being, for time and for eternity. May my understanding be always submissive to Thy heavenly inspirations and to the teaching of the Catholic Church, of which Thou art the Infallible Guide; may my heart be ever inflamed with love of God and my neighbor, may my will be ever conformed to the Divine Will, and may my whole life be a faithful imitation of the life and virtues of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom, with the Father and Thee, be honor and glory forever. AMEN
