

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*****

FROM: YOU CAT

Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church The Ten Commandments

The Fifth Commandment: You shall not kill.

398. Must Christians be pacifists?

The Church strives for peace but does not preach radical pacifism. Indeed, no one can deny either the individual citizen or particular governments and alliances the fundamental right of armed self-defense. War is morally justifiable only as a last resort. [2308]

The Church unmistakably says No to war. Christians should do everything possible to avoid war before it starts: They oppose the stockpiling of arms and trafficking in weapons; they fight against racial, ethnic, and religious discrimination; they work to put an end to economic and social injustice and thus promote peace. [283 - 284]

399. When is the use of military force allowed?

The use of military force is possible only in an extreme emergency. There are several criteria for a “just war”:

- 1. Authorization by competent authority;
- 2. a just cause;
- 3. a just purpose;
- 4. war must be the last resort;
- 5. the methods used must be proportionate;
- 6. there must be a prospect of success. [2307-2309]

‘VOCATION SEEDS’

The blind beggar Bartimaeus would not listen to the many people scolding him to be quiet, but shouted all the louder in prayer “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Only then did Jesus call him over and answered his need. Bartimaeus becomes a powerful example of how persistent we must be in prayer when we are asking God to show us His Will for our lives. And then, ask Him for the grace to accept it. If you feel that God is offering you the grace of a Church vocation,
