

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

FROM: DOCAT

The Common Good, Personhood, Solidarity, Subsidiarity The Principles of the Church's Social Teaching

106. What does freedom mean?

Being free sets man above the animals and in a certain sense even makes him like God. True freedom is not the capacity to choose whatever one wants, good or evil, but rather the capacity to choose the good. Only free human beings can take responsibility. Being personally free makes human beings unique. Within the range of responsibilities, someone can freely choose his occupation and his vocation; human beings can come and go, choose this or leave that aside. It is a fundamental human right the exercise of which must not be restricted without good reason. With respect to freedom of expression, human beings must be allowed to articulate freely their own religious, political, and cultural ideas. Everyone must be able to express his own opinion in freedom. For this to happen, there must be a legal order that guarantees a person's freedom and protects it against pressure from the misuse of freedom by others.

107. Why do we need truth in the life of society?

Truth, translated into my personal life, means truthfulness, honesty. If people do not deal honestly with one another, any society falls apart. When words and actions no longer agree and when we can no longer presume honesty, then mistrust, coldness, and cunning define human coexistence. Another component of truth in the political-economic realm is transparency, both decisions and of actions. This is especially true when it is a question of the use of financial resources.

'VOCATION SEEDS'

Receiving Eucharist is a real sign of unity in our Church. God nourishes us with the "Bread from Heaven" if we have ordained priests to celebrate the Liturgy. If you feel the inclination to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon,

Cardinal Thomas Collins issues call to action before June 7 election

Cardinal Collins recently sent a letter to subscribed parishioner, via email, with a call to action to promote palliative care, conscience rights and the protection of faith-based facilities. In the first letters, Cardinal Collins asked Catholics to visit <http://bit.ly/CanadiansforConscience> to send a letter to all candidates in their riding, in advance of the June 7 provincial election. A pre-written letter is provided which people can amend as they choose. If parishioners did not receive Cardinal Collins' emailed letter and would like to receive them in the future, please subscribed at <http://bit.ly/SignUpSundays>. Thank you for helping to advocate on these important issues!

FATHER SULTANA'S GOLDEN JUBILEE AND RETIREMENT CELEBRATION

Mighty big thanks to all the Parish Groups and the Organizing committee members who organized the celebration on the occasion of my Golden Jubilee of my Priesthood and my farewell dinner and party. It was very heartwarming to see your respect and love you showed me.

I feel very much indebted to all the parishioners who showered me with a multitude of gifts.

To all who offered me their good wishes and prayers, my heartfelt gratitude. To all the parishioners, one and all, without exception, I say that I will always remember you in my prayers.

Thank You Thank You Thank You
Fr. Joseph Sultana

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by the promoting mental health of kids

Jake wrote a story in his grade 7 class that made his principal worry he might harm himself. The principal called his mother and recommended she take him to see a counselor at Catholic Community Services of York Region, a Sharelife-funded agency. While the boy was very quiet during the first session, he eventually revealed his sadness and confusion about his parents' divorce. As the counselor helped Jake learn how other kids respond to a family breakup, he was relieved to find out his grieving is normal. Jake started to feel much better. By donating to ShareLife, you're helping kids like Jake find healing and happiness.

June 3-Feast of Corpus Christi - O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruit of your redemption.

One of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is the desire to share with others, especially our neighbor-in-need, and by contributing to the POOR BOX after Mass. The Poor Box collection for May 2018 was $1, 266.97. Thank You for your kind generosity.

BUNDLE-UP Weekend: June 16/17, 2018 - The SVP container will be in the parking lot on the dates.

Please bring your gently used textiles, clothing, towels and household linens. Please DO NOT bring any electronic appliances, dishes, furniture, cribs, strollers, books and mattresses. Would appreciate your co-operation.

MYSTERY OF THE BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

The signs of bread and wine

At the heart of the Eucharistic celebration are the bread and wine that, by the words of Christ and the invocation of the Holy Spirit, become Christ's Body and Blood. Faithful to the Lord's command the Church continues to do, in his memory and until his glorious return, what he did on the eve of his Passion: "He took bread ..." "He took the cup filled with wine ..." The signs of bread and wine become, in a way surpassing understanding, the Body and Blood of Christ; they continue also to signify the goodness of creation. Thus in the Offertory we give thanks to the Creator for bread and wine, fruit of the "work of human hands," but above all as "fruit of the earth" and "of the vine" - gifts of the Creator. The Church sees in the gesture of the king-priest Melchizedek, who "brought out bread and wine," a prefiguring of her own offering. (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1333)
