179. What are the limits of the free market?

Many people have no access at all to the market and cannot satisfy their fundamental needs. They are poor, have nothing to offer, and cannot buy anything. Again and again we must make it clear that a human being not only has something but above all is someone - one of our brothers or sisters who has an inalienable dignity. "It is a strict duty of justice and truth not to allow fundamental human needs to remain unsatisfied, and not to allow those burdened by such needs to perish" (John Paul II, CA 34). Moreover, the free market is limited by the fact that there are numerous goods that have no price and therefore cannot be sold: a human being himself (prostitution, exploitation, human trafficking), his health (the industrialization and commercialization of medicine), his body parts (the organ trade), or else friendship, forgiveness, family relationships, etc.

180. What does globalization mean for the economy?

Economically, the world is growing more and more interconnected. The fall of barriers after the end of the Cold War, the improvement of transportation, and especially the digital revolution have led to a situation in which businesses can communicate worldwide in real time and produce globally. Funds flow at lightning speed all over the earth. Manufacturing facilities are relocated to the most profitable site. New markets are constantly opening up, etc.

'VOCATION SEEDS'

Peter, John, James had a mountaintop experience with Jesus by witnessing His transfiguration. We too can have a mountaintop experience when we open our minds and hearts to following God's Will for our lives. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director,

Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997

COINS FOR LIFE

Consider taking a box home and placing your loose change into it, to help support Campaign Life Coalition in their prolife initiatives. This can be a good way to make small sacrifices and support a good cause (things we should be doing especially during Lent).

SECURITY CAMERAS AND BATHROOM RENOVATIONS

We are installing security cameras inside and outside the Church for the safety and welfare of everyone. We are also starting our bathroom renovations this week. Please note that to access the bathroom during the week you may have to go through the hall to get to them.

During this Lenten journey, let us ask our loving Lord for the grace, the desire and the energy to go beyond our comfortable selves and be an instrument of His kindness to those who need us most - our families/our neighbor in need.

"Charity is the cement which binds communities to God and persons to one another." (St. Vincent de Paul)

Thank you for your continued contribution to the Poor Box after Masses.

Many Thanks also for your donations to the SVP container in the parking lot last weekend. God bless you for your concern for those in need.

SHARELIFE

Living the Gospel by helping young mothers

Anika became a mother at the age of 19. Soon after, her fiancé became increasingly controlling. Feeling isolated, she reached out to a ShareLife agency called Rose of Sharon. She and her son attended almost every program offered, including one called Healthy Relationships. Anika realized she didn't have to tolerate her partner's behavior. Rose of Sharon helped her find an affordable apartment so she and her son could move out. "I never thought I could make it on my own," says Anika. "But with the help of Rose of Sharon, here I am doing it."

March 31 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MOVIE NIGHT

For MEN ONLY

On Saturday March 30th, at 6:15 pm in the parish hall, we will be showing the documentary video, "The Father Effect". We encourage all men of our parish, young and old, single or married, to come out for this event. Why are men the way they are? Why are they often so distant from family? Why do they experience so much conflict in their relationships? This video can give you a lot of insights and hopefully to improve your lives. The video presentation is free, pizza and pop will be available for $5 for those who want it. Fr. Steven will lead a discussion during half time and after the movie. Please notify the KofC members in the gift shop to indicate that you will be attending, so they know how much pizza to order.
